Fr. Angelo D'Agostino (Posthumous)

The late Fr. D'Agostino was born on 26th January 1926 in USA. After working in his native country he came to Kenya in 1981 to work among refugees. In 1990 he started Nyumbani Children's Home an orphanage for HIV positive children in Nairobi. By the time of his death in November 2006, the home catered for 95 orphans. He also started other institutions for disadvantaged and vulnerable children. He is awarded the Silver Star of Kenya (SS), posthumously for his tireless efforts in philanthropic endeavours.
